THE SOCIETY AND ITS JOURNAL

THE IMPORTANCE OF FORESTRY is being realized more and more in Great Britain. The number of foresters is increasing steadily, and a forestry profession is gradually being built up. It is intended that this Society should be representative of the profession. Those who are not engaged in the practice of forestry or the allied sciences are cordially invited to join the Society as Ordinary Members.

THE SOCIETY'S JOURNAL, called Forestry, is usually published twice a year, in January and July. It provides a means for the publication of the results of practice and research both in the growing of timber and in its utilization, including such basic sciences as forest physiology and ecology, forest soils, wood structure, and timber physics, and allied sciences such as forest entomology and forest mycology.

CONTRIBUTIONS may be accepted from members and others resident either in Great Britain or abroad. They should be sent to R. W. V. Palmer, Bannerleigh, Leigh Woods, Bristol. No article should be submitted which is being offered to any other journal for prior or simultaneous publication. References to literature should be collected at the end of the paper, and arranged alphabetically according to author's name, and numbered. In the text each reference should be indicated by its number enclosed in brackets. Each article should begin with a summary which should be factual and convey briefly the content of the article and draw attention to all new information and to the main conclusions. It should be concise and should not normally exceed 200 words. It is understood that the author waives any copyright or translation rights in such summaries and that their reproduction in other publications will be permitted, subject to the source being duly acknowledged. Twenty reprints of the article will be sent free to each contributor and a reasonable number may be purchased by the contributor if ordered when the proofs are returned. The Society as a body takes no responsibility for the views expressed by contributors.

Forestry is sent free to members of the Society; others may register as subscribers by application to the Secretary, The Society of Foresters of Great Britain, 7 Albyn Place, Edinburgh, 2.

SOCIETY'S MEDAL. This may be awarded by the Society to any individual who has rendered eminent services to British forestry. Proposals for the award have to be made in the first instance to the Council by a Member of the Council. The regulations for the award will be found in Vol. xx, pp. 80, 81, and in Rule 11.
